HONEYGUIDE TENTED SAFARI CAMPS

OUR 5 IMMERSIVE SAFARI PROPERTIES

It all started in Africa over three decades ago. Albatros Travel was one of the first Scandinavian travel companies to send guests on safari, we have since perfected and honed our offerings to provide authentic bush experiences for even the most seasoned travellers. From family-friendly Khoka Moya Camp, as well as Mantobeni Camp that reminds of Hemingway's Africa in the private Manyeleti Game Reserve bordering Kruger National Park, to the malaria-free Honeyguide Ranger Camp and the luxury and beauty of Conservation Lodge - a mere 3h drive North of Johannesburg, to our astounding Honeyguide Tarangire Camp in East Africa, our establishments provide excellent guest experiences set in authentic surroundings without compromising on comfort and safety.

We have carefully selected our properties to provide optimal bush and safari experiences for all our guests. Perfectly blending serenity, luxury and adventure, our camps offer our guests a deep and rich immersion in untouched nature within wildlife-rich regions in South Africa & East Africa.

ENTABENI GAME RESERVE

WHERE WILDERNESS WHISPERS AND LEGENDS LINGER

Hidden within the heart of the UNESCO Waterberg Biosphere lies Entabeni Game Reserve, one of South Africa's most mesmerising secrets. A rare gem far from the crowds, this 22,000-hectare, malaria-free sanctuary offers not just the Big Five, but a true communion with nature. The diversity of landscapes is nothing short of cinematic: from savannah grasslands and wetlands to dramatic mountains and gorges, every corner feels like it's been hand-painted by nature's most imaginative artist. The Big Five roam freely, along with cheetah, hippos and other rare specimens and elusive nocturnal creatures that slip like shadows through the undergrowth. Game drives are punctuated by jaw-dropping moments—a lion's staring at an antelope, an elephant herd crossing your path, hippos sunbathing, without mentioning the sudden burst of colour as a lilac-breasted roller takes flight.

The name, meaning "Place of the Mountain," speaks to each human soul. A place that doesn't just offer luxury and adventure, but something deeper, something soulful, almost sacred. Whether you're overlooking a golden valley home to so unique wildlife or tracing constellations under a velvet night sky, you're reminded that some places are designed not just to be seen, but to be felt.

HONEYGUIDE CONSERVATION LODGE

WHERE LUXURY SAFARI MEETS SUSTAINABILITY

While most international travellers flock to Kruger, South Africa's true hidden treasures remain largely undiscovered. In the shadow of Hanglip Mountain and nestled within the Entabeni Game Reserve lies Conservation Lodge—a safari retreat where luxury and purpose coexist in perfect harmony. Just three hours from Johannesburg, this secluded sanctuary invites guests to reconnect with nature while indulging in refined comfort.

The wilderness is intimate, the silence sacred, and each experience feels personal and profound. Wildlife roams freely through the unfenced area, blurring the boundaries between you and the wild. Guests can unwind on the pool deck, indulge in spa treatments, or savour slow, seasonal cuisine at the dining conservancy—each dish a celebration of local flavour. Social spaces invite connection, yet solitude is always close at hand. At every turn, thoughtful sustainability touches are woven through, from conservation education to low-impact operations.

The lodge's ten suites are a study in understated elegance. Designed to reflect the colours and textures of the surrounding bush, each room offers modern amenities including air-conditioning, ceiling fans, and en-suite bathrooms. Private decks open onto uninterrupted views of the dam and bushveld. Wheelchair-accessible, the lodge welcomes all explorers—offering rooms that sleep up to two adults and one child over twelve.
